Prospects for cooperation between UNIDO and Russia were discussed at the UNIDO Industrial Development Board

On December 21, 2022, the Russian delegation headed by the Deputy Minister of Industry and Trade of the Russian Federation Alexey Gruzdev took part in the 50th meeting of the UNIDO Industrial Development Board.

During his speech, Alexey Gruzdev stressed that the Russian Federation attaches particular importance to cooperation with UNIDO as a key organization of the UN system on industrial development issues and a unique platform for a global comprehensive dialogue between representatives of government, the private sector, scientific and expert organizations.

“Our interaction with UNIDO is aimed at the practical results and solving urgent problems of industrial development,” said the Deputy Head of the Ministry of Industry and Trade of Russia.

Russia remains one of the largest sponsors of UNIDO and co-finances technical assistance projects and country partnership programs in Africa, Latin America, Eastern Europe and Central Asia.

On the sidelines of the meeting, Alexey Gruzdev also met with UNIDO DG Gerd Muller. They discussed the areas of cooperation between Russia and UNIDO towards climate change prevention, energy efficiency, labor productivity, the "green" economy, biodiversity, hydrogen technologies, the mining industry and metallurgy. Among other topics of negotiations are the activities of the UNIDO CIIC and the creation of the Centre for Industrial Competences of the BRICS countries on the basis of UNIDO.

Director of the UNIDO CIIC Sergey Korotkov took part in the work of the Council and held a series of negotiations with colleagues from UNIDO regarding the implementation of the plan of activities of the UNIDO Representative Offices in the Russian Federation, outlined by Mr. Gruzdev.

More than two thousand people from 36 countries took part in the panel and plenary sessions of the Forum. The Eurasian Economic Commission, the Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs, the International Congress of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs, the Association of Financiers of Kazakhstan, the Association of Banks of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the Association of European Businesses, the Moscow Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the UNIDO CIIC were also represented at the forum. , the UN Country Team in Russia, the Union of Chinese Entrepreneurs of Russia, as well as ambassadors and representatives of the Embassies of Brazil, Syria, and Kyrgyzstan.

Sergey Korotkov, Director of the UNIDO CIIC, spoke about the cooperation within the framework of business associations and country associations. According to his words, "the main opportunities for cooperation lie in the development of regional integration projects, such as the EAEU and the Eurasian Customs Union. China's Belt and Road Initiative not only improves the region's ability to attract foreign investment, but increases competition between Russian and Chinese companies. As well as cooperation within the framework of BRICS + in Central Asia".

Vladimir Kuznetsov, Director of the UN Information Centre in Moscow, Chairman of the UN Country Team in Russia, noted that the topics raised by the Forum participants, are extremely important both for the global agenda and in terms of the efforts that the United Nations is making today . The plight in which the world has found itself as a result of armed conflicts, climate change, division, poverty and unemployment, mass displacement of people, the consequences of a global pandemic, etc. led to a lack of funds to finance sustainable development.

Members of the Federal Organizing Committee of Ecodictant, representatives of regions, ministries and departments, large businesses and project ambassadors reported on the results of Ecodictant for 2022, the number of participants online and offline, their distribution across Russian regions, their successes and pleasant sensations within project.

Yegor Borisov also put attention to the fact that in 2020 the project was supported by 13 ministries and departments, in 2022 their number increased to 24. "Law enforcement agencies were actively involved in Ecodictation. They not only informed citizens about the opportunity to test their environmental knowledge, but also showed the importance of such a test by personal example. The Ministry of Emergency Situations, the General Prosecutor's Office, the Investigative Committee, the Federal Service for the Execution of Punishments joined the project.

In turn, Vyacheslav Timchenko spoke about the importance of the work being done. "It is necessary not only to educate people, it is important that the ideas of ecology enter the life of every person, become an element of cultural education," the legislator emphasized.

Natalia Sokolova, co-chair of the Ecodictant Federal Organizing Committee, head of the Union for Energy and Environmental Security, thanked the Federation Council for supporting the project, the idea of which was born within the walls of the upper house of parliament. "The eco-dictation brought together the environmental initiatives of the regions," she said.

Sergey Korotkov, Director of the UNIDO CIIC, noted in his speech that Ecodictation is an important initiative aimed at educating young people and popularizing
